

JOHN COX'S CREATURE WORKSHOP

1978 - 2011

John Cox has more than 35 years experience in the visual effects industry and is the director of Australia's leading creature effects company, John Cox's Creature Workshop. His company specializes in the concept, design and manufacture of animatronic fantasy creatures, characters and realistic animals.

John received a 1995 Academy Award for Visual Effects for the movie 'Babe' and in 1999 was elected as a voting member of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. He was awarded the 2006 Kinetone Award for 'significant contributions to the Queensland Film and Television Industry' and is 2007 Australian Film Industry (AFI) Awards winner for Visual Effects for 'Rogue'. John is Queensland Smart State Creative Arts Ambassador.
